Besieged!

Popular prices bring prosperity to factory, to store, and to consumer, and the great crowds that thronged our spacious stores yesterday, eager to get a share of the wonderful bargains offered, were living lessons to croakers. Not even the threatening weather nor the pouring rain kept them away.

To-day the GREAT SALE OF MANUFACTURERS' STOCKS goes on with redoubled energy, and ladies are urged to come in the morning and thus avoid the tremendous crowds during the busy hours.

Some Examples of the Stupendous Bargains.

Ladies' Summer Dresses.

A. Beller & Co., corner Fourth and Mercer sts., and A. Friedlander & Co., Bond st., have sold us in all 2,000 Ladies' Wash Suits, at 1-2 and 1-3 less than their value, and we put them on sale to-day.

COLONIAL COMFORT.

Chairs with a smack of age in their design—with an 18th century comfort not to be despised. A few old-fashioned high-backed Colonials should be in every house. At first sight a wooden seat is imitative of luxury. But the hand-craftsman of 1800 knew how to hollow out a "dog" seat for surprising ease. Many designs of Colonial Chairs, ornamented with Marqueterie—some inlaid with tortoise shell and mother of pearl—some beautiful in their simple plainness. It is money saved to
